

Barry Flanagan

Barry Flanagan was born in Prestatyn, North Wales.

He initially studied architecture, but then went on to study sculpture at St Martins School of Art, London

Flanagan combined animal forms such as; hares, elephants, dogs and horses and used his imagination to give them human characteristics.

Flanagan is perhaps best known for his dynamic, large, bronze hares.

Lots of his bronze hares can be seen at Chatsworth House.

1941 - 2009