

KEEPING SAFE

around animals in the countryside

Following an 'escaped horse' incident that happened outside our school recently, one of our parents, Mrs. Barnes, who is a vet, offered to come in to talk to the pupils about keeping safe around animals that we might find locally. It was a great talk full of information and the follow up work that we produced saw our pupils produce some really excellent posters.