Dear Parents/Carers,

On Monday we have Andy Tooze, the Poet, coming in to school to share his poems and inspire the children to write and perform their own. The poems will be on the subject of 'Celebrations', to fit in with our schools 140th anniversary this year.

Andy will perform his own poems then work with each class to help create theirs. He is very inspirational and I am sure the children will be excited and enthused during this unique day.

Four of Andy's poetry books for children will be on sale during the day, which of course he will sign, should the children wish to buy one. They are normally £8.99 but he will be selling them for £5 on the day. If your child would like one, please send them with the money on the day, or pop in after school to buy one. Cash only!

The four books are

Yours,
